Where to Park For Easter Service

Ample parking space has been provided at the Roosevelt Memorial Park for motorists from Torrance, Gardena and surrounding communities in the part of the Park lying east of the pavilion north of the north drive and out to Vermont avenue. Cars will be parked, under the direction of Legionnaires, in double rows, cars back to back with space in front to enable each car to leave with a minimum of exertion.

Under no circumstances will cars be permitted on the south drive or the central avenue between the organ and the pavilion, except official cars. Commander Steele, of Gardena, will place a detachment of Legionnaires at all entrances to the park to direct traffic to the north entry drive leading to the parking space.

No machines will be permitted to leave after the service until the students participating are safely in their various buses for the return trip. Cars can enter or leave at both the Vermont and Normandie entrances and every effort will be made to prevent over-crowding.

IN MASSES CHORUS Members of the Christ Episcopal church choir were included in the massed choir which sang at St. Luke's Episcopal church in Los Angeles Sunday.

MAKING EASTER MUSIC!

HERE IS ALBERT H. DEEKS, noted organist, who is the creator of the Children's Easter Sunrise Service, which will have its first annual presentation next Sunday morning at Roosevelt Memorial Park. Deeks is pictured seated at the console of the world's mightiest organ in the Park. This great music-maker will provide the accompaniment for the student choruses of the Torrance and Gardena high schools, and the Spanish-American Institute Glee club singers.

How to Enjoy Easter Morning

If you want to enjoy the Children's Easter Sunrise Service at Roosevelt Memorial Park between Normandie and Vermont avenues Sunday—

Set your alarm clock for 4:30 a. m.

Take a couple of blankets—the early morning hours are quite chilly.

Take your time driving to the Park and parking your machine under the courteous direction of American Legion men.

Don't crowd but assemble close to the giant organ.

Participate in the singing of the hymns with the student chorus and the organ—the words to the familiar tunes will be found on the programs distributed at the park.

Observe traffic regulations in leaving the scene of the service.

Have a good breakfast at home and then—

Attend your local church. Thank you!

IMPRESSIVE SERVICE TO BE GIVEN AT ROOSEVELT PARK

Torrance and Gardena Students Unite To Present Unique Program Beginning 5:20 A. M. Easter Sunday

All preparations for the first annual Children's Easter Sunrise Service, the only event of its kind in the Southland, were complete today, according to Alfred H. Deeks, organist at Roosevelt Memorial Park, where the services will be given at dawn, Easter Sunday, April 5.

Both the cities of Torrance and Gardena have taken an active interest in the program and a large crowd is expected to gather in front of the mighty Roosevelt organ to herald the coming of another Easter at approximately 5:20 a. m.

Ample Parking Space

All cars will be directed to the north drive of the park on Normandie avenue as no machines will be permitted on the south drive at any time before or during the services. There is ample parking space for approximately 4000 cars near the park. Those who are planning to attend the program are asked to leave their cars and congregate as near the great chorus of students as possible.

Members of the American Legion posts of Torrance and Gardena will act as special police to direct traffic and guard automobiles. Boy Scouts from the two cities will serve as couriers, ushers and attendants within the park.

Deeks requested today that all participating in the event, students from Torrance, Gardena, and the Spanish-American Institute, Legionnaires, and Scouts be at the organ in the park not later than 4:45 a. m. on Easter morning, in readiness for the sunrise.

All-Children Event Student choruses from the Torrance and Gardena high schools and the Spanish-American Institute will be grouped around the organ. The entire service will be concluded in time for the audience and students to participate in church services at their own churches.

This is your children's invitation to an Easter service that is different! Deeks said today in summing up the preparations made for the event. "It is strictly a children's program with the single exception of the invocation by Dr. A. C. Stevens, president of the Spanish-American Institute. The boys and girls from the two cities have combined to present an im-

Santa Ana Hands Lomita a Defeat

Another Wild Game; Lomita Meets Travelers Sunday

LOMITA.—Lomita 11, Santa Ana 13. That tells most of the sad story of Sunday's game.

A near fight with the umpire, when Linderman's home run in the seventh was not allowed because he had failed to touch first base, provided excitement for the large crowd. Mann therefore scored the only home run in the game.

Next Sunday the team plays the United Commercial Travelers again and hope to hand back the kicking they received from the Los Angeles team several weeks ago.

ADDITION TO CHURCH

HARBOR CITY.—A new addition to the Community church to be used for the Sunday school is to be erected and George Bennett, George W. Smith, and G. F. Hopkins have been chosen as a building committee to arrange details.

LOMITA.—The Auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, entertained Monday night with a five hundred and bridge party. These social evenings are greatly enjoyed by the members and their friends and the usual good crowd was out Monday night.

Free Transportation for Torrance Students

The Chamber of Commerce has arranged for free transportation for all Torrance students participating in the Easter Sunrise Service who would otherwise have no means of attending the event. The students should meet at the Torrance high school entrance at 4:30 a. m., Sunday, where the buses will pick them up for the Roosevelt Memorial Park. After the service the Torrance students will be returned to the high school in ample time to attend church in the city.

Andersens Follow Norwegian Silver Wedding Observance

LOMITA.—Twenty-five years ago on a cold, wintry day in Chicago, Louis Andersen took as his bride, Marie Mathisen. Thursday at their home at 2820 Miller street, Mr. and Mrs. Andersen spent the day receiving the congratulations of their friends. Flowers and sunshine indoors and out, bouquets, gifts of silver and telegrams arrived, while the Andersen family followed the time-honored custom of their native land, Norway, and served cake and coffee to all comers. Therefore it was most fitting that among the gifts presented was a beautiful silver coffee service.

Adding to the pleasure of the occasion was the arrival of Mr. and Mrs. L. Larsen of Muskegon, Michigan, who were friends of 40 years' standing. Other guests were Mrs. L. Wiklem, Mrs. John Hanseth, Mr. and Mrs. R. Sandviken who were joined by a large group in the evening who arrived to surprise the honored couple.

Guests of the evening were Mr. and Mrs. D. Linden, Mr. and Mrs. O. Tolson, Mr. and Mrs. A. Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. John Holm, Mr. and Mrs. J. Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Al Martin, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Madrig, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Pollock, Mr. and Mrs. P. Thorson, Mr. and Mrs. H. Olson, Mr. and Mrs. C. Sandvick, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hagum, Mr. and Mrs. L. Zastrow, Mrs. E. Scheckel, Miss Ruth Greenlund, Hugo F. Schmidt, and the three sons of the Andersens, Carl, Milton, and Willard.

NO CHANCE FOR SINGLE MEN IN THIS CONTEST!

LOMITA.—Tuesday, April 7, is district meeting for the Lomita lodge I. O. O. F. On April 14 an interesting contest will be held in which a cash prize will go to the brother telling the best story. The married men say the single brothers haven't a chance.

TO NOMINATE OFFICERS LOMITA.—Mrs. Roy Hathaway, Mrs. John Watt, Mrs. Charles Eade and Miss Hilda Jellison will act as the nominating committee for the Orange Street P. T. A.

Hand Waving No Aid to Linguists

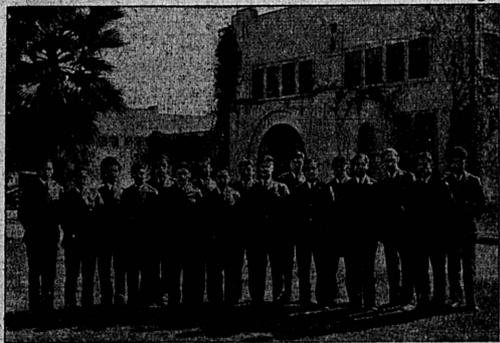

LOMITA.—Flapping in rhythm like the wings of butterflies, four pairs of hands were observed one day beating the air in the justice court. An efficiency expert rushing in to discover why the lost motion found the judge, Bertha Wilcox, Constable Taber and Deputy Neff trying near Spanish on a young Mexican who couldn't or would not savvy. The defendant finally in desperation clapped his hands over his ears, pleaded guilty, and was given a suspended sentence on a vagrancy charge.

Firearms, Boys, Hills Don't Mix

LOMITA.—Caught shooting at a water tank in the Palos Verdes hills, two San Pedro youths, Fred Birmingham and Louis Heinzman, were arrested and brought before Judge Dennis Tuesday. The boys were in possession of a rifle, a shotgun, and an automatic. After a reprimand, the judge released the boys, but retained the automatic until a conference could be held with the parents. No firearms are allowed in the hills and Constable Taber again warns boys to keep out of them with guns.

SPANISH-AMERICAN SINGERS

THIS IS the Glee Club from the Spanish-American Institute at Gardena which will have a part in the Children's Easter Sunrise Service at the Roosevelt Memorial Park, on Easter Sunday, April 5. These boys will be grouped with the student glee clubs from the Torrance and Gardena schools around the big organ during the all-Harbor District observance.

Roosevelt Memorial Park

Located at 182nd Street Between Vermont and Normandie Avenues

This naturally beautiful parkway, enhanced by the artistry of foremost landscape gardeners, is a most convenient and befitting final resting place for the residents of Torrance and Gardena Valley. No tombstones, mounds or other suggestive features of burial are allowed, thereby preserving the beautiful park appearance. Uniform bronze markers, set flush with the ground, are used exclusively throughout the park.

PERPETUAL CARE GUARANTEED

So that the beauty of the park may be assured for all time, the Roosevelt Memorial Park Association must set aside 15% of the total sale value of the park for perpetual care. This fund will approximate $300,000 to be placed at 7% interest.
